I am pleased to present to you the 2014 Santa Rosa Junior College Strategic Plan. The process to develop this plan has been transparent, inclusive, participatory and collaborative. It embodies our beliefs and aspirations.

When I began my tenure here in January, 2012, my goal was to make a great college better. The Strategic Plan will serve as our North Star for guiding our future direction as a premier institution of higher education. My pledge is to turn these words into reality. Let’s join together to build on the foundation of 96 years of excellence. As we approach our 100 year anniversary, I am excited and enthusiastic to work with you as we lay the foundation for the second 100 years.

Thanks to all of you who worked so diligently in shaping the plan and to those who will be participants in its implementation.

With great pride and gratitude,

Dr. Frank Chong
Superintendent and President

A Community Engaged

Over the past 18 months, more than 400 faculty, staff, administrators, students, community partners, and Board trustees have worked together to develop the Sonoma County Junior College District’s first-ever district-wide strategic plan. Their work has resulted in the 2014 Strategic Plan which will guide the direction of our District and college over the next three to five years.

The plan emerged under the guidance of the Strategic Planning Task Force and with the involvement of the larger college community who discussed strategies and key issues, and offered feedback to the draft plan.

Opportunities for engagement included:
- A day-long planning retreat and regular Strategic Planning Task Force meetings
- Facilitated input from workshops held during three Professional Development Activity days
- A Board of Trustees study session
- Feedback from members of SRJC’s external community provided via Community Conversations held in four locations throughout Sonoma County
- An ongoing series of college and community-wide surveys, and newsletters, plus regular updates of the Strategic Planning website
- Presentations to college-wide faculty, staff and student constituent groups

This work has been informed by best practices and data gathered from multiple sources, including a comprehensive environmental scan and an interactive website. Critical demographic, social, and economic data were provided by the District’s Office of Institutional Research and used to identify current and future demographic trends, social and economic patterns and future educational pathways in the region.

The 2014 Strategic Plan reflects a collectively agreed upon future for the Sonoma County Junior College District and Santa Rosa Junior College, and provides a common framework of goals, objectives and shared outcomes. It also serves as a starting point for strategy development and problem solving that the College as a whole and each department/unit can apply towards meeting the specific needs of our students, employees and facilities.
